ACCIDENT IN FIRST RACE.

Optional, Emma A. M. and Dick Ripley Go Down-Jockey Anbuchon is Carried Off Track Unconscious.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Memphis, Tenn., April 13 - The Executive Committee of the New Memphis Jockey Club held a meeting in the clubhouse at Montgomery Park this afternoon between the running of the third and fourth races, and summoned M. J. Daly and E. Corrigan to appear and answer the charges made against them by Starter William Murray.

Daly was on hand, but Cerrigan could not be found. It was said that he had left town last night to be gone for a few days. so it was decided to postpone the case until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

E. E. Wright, attorney for the club, has the case in hand, and will conduct the in- BELLE OF MILFORD A GOOD THINGvestigation. From the expressions made by some of the prominent members of the ciub it would seem that a thorough investigation is to be made.

In the first race rather a nasty-looking accident occurred at the furlong pole, directly in front of the clubbouse.

As the field reached this point Optional, the favorite in the race, in an attempt to get through her field, jumped on Emma A. M. and feil. The mare was in the middle of the bunch at the time, and Dick Ripley, who was in behind, tumbled over her. Jockey Aubuchon, who had the mount on Optional, lay stretched out on the ground, and for a time it was thought that the lad was dead. He finally revived and it was found that he suffered only a shock. The winner of the race turned up in Taxman, who beat Amorous out half a length after a driving finish, which lasted all the final furiong.

J. C. Erris to-day sold the promising cross-country horse Melbourne Eclipse to G. A. Saportas for $2.50. He will be shipped East, together with the remainder of the Seportas stable, and raced on the metropolitan circuit. As the field reached this point Optional

GENERAL RACING NOTES. More Than 350 Horses Now Quartered at Union Track.

Tom Nepper, superintendent of Union Jockey Club, said last night that he and but forty of 400 stalls left. Three hundred and fifty horses are stabled on the track and about forty in neighboring private stables.

Mr. Nepper is putting up two new barns, which will be ready for occupancy in a day or two.

mr. Nepper is putting up two new barns, which will be ready for occupancy in a day or two.

Charles Primrose, who had been in the East soliciting enjries for the Union Jockey Club, arrived yesterday. A special train of forty-eight horses will arrive from Bennings to-day. Mr. Primrose said that he would not have had any trouble in securing 200 horses from the Eastern tracks had there been sufficient stable room for them at the Union track.

Two additional carloads will arrive tomorrow from Bennings and two more Monday. Mr. Primrose says that Eastern horsemen look upon the new track as a soft spot in which to make money.

E. E. Parker of Eminence, Ky., arrived at the Union track with six head of Handsome 2-year-olds yesterday. Handsome is by the great Hanover, out of Cinderella, a famous dam of great race horses, such as Glenheim and Plaudit. Handsome was sold by Ed Corrigan to Zeke Abraham for $25. Abraham then sold him to S. J. Jones of Oregon for $250. Doctor J. D. Neet of Eminence, Ky., wanted him for a stallion and bought him from Jones for $2,500. Now some French breeders have recently offered Doctor Neet $2,500 for the horse.

The increase in the ratio of 25s is remarkable. Handsome is bred on the same lines as Halma, who is a great success in the stud in France. This success has ent French breeders looking for a Hanover horse in America.

McCoy & Benert arrived from Los Angeles yesterday with the good sprinter. Thisbe, and three others. Thisbe was quite a good mare among platers in the West. Madam Bishop and Little Margaret were also among the arrivals.

The top dressing of soft mold which has covered the Union track was scraped off yesterday. A beavy roller will be put on the track to-day. The course is sound and has none of the holes sometimes found in new tracks, but the heavy mold prevented fast time being made. The quarter and eighth poles were erected yesterday, and Starter McKnight put in his gate posts.

Captain Ries secured the star rider of the new track. Adams to suide W. B. Gates in the Insugu

Pinnance, Indian Pitcher, Route

From the Box. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Philadelphia, Pa., April 13.—Although the Phillies easily won to-day's game with the Athletics, the latter won the interleague series by five victories to three. Pinnance, one of the Athletics' three Indian pitchers, was effective up to the sixth inning, when the Phillies land him for seven successive hits, including a home run by Wolverton, which won the Besides our own opening at Sportsman's Park this afternoon, the following American League teams will play: New York, with Boston, at Boston; Cleveland vs. Chicago, at Chicago, and the Athletics at home to the Senators.

"Big Bob" Talbot, the giant right-hand pitcher, who did so well for Schnectady of the New York State League, will not go away to play ball this year. The popular backstop was severely spiked in a recent game against Omaha. Miller of Omaha, in sliding for the plate, hit O'Nelll with his spikes and practically amputated the catcher's fourth toe.

Johnny Dobbs is playing in the outfield for the Superbas. Pitcher Graham and Outfielder Howard of the Chicago team have been released by Selee. Both will get a chance with the Colorado Springs nine.

Pittsburg was pretty lucky against the Cardinals last year, but the rabbit's foot will likely experience a change of berth this scason.

Wonder if Sam Crawford has his long The Browns frequently trimmed the "Tigers" claws last year, and Professor McAleer has practically the same bunch of manicurists this season.

The fans will get a peep at the greatest speed merchant of them all if "Wild William" is sent to the firing line this afternoon for the Tigers.

There is a Lush in Philadelphia, but from the way be let the Athletics down it does not appear that the handle fits the pitcher. If "Shoestrings" Heidrick maintains the batting clip he established in the ante-season series, he is bound to become a popular favorite again.

Jesse Burkett and several of his inti-mate friends will renew old acquaintance this afternoon at Sportsman's Park. As a conversationalist from the third base coaching line Burkett is in a class by himself.

When Wallace takes his place at short field to-day he will get an ovation from the fans. Burns, the secondsacker with the "Ti-gers," is touted as a wonderful fielder by the local recruits from the far West.

The Browns are certainly lucky in having Hemphil as a substitute for Huelsman. In the ante-season series the big "Dutchman" showed that he knew what a bat was made for. Furthermore, he displayed unexpected form as a fielder. As a thrower and runner he was above the average and would have won many games for the locals by his general playing had he been retained.

'War" Sanders Shuts Out the Youngsters in Slowly Played Game. The "Vets." composed of the Cardinals' regular team, defeated the "Colts," composed of Cardinal youngsters, in an exhibition game at League Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 1 to 0.

Although the game was marked by a certain amount of horse play, it served to show the few shivering fans that the Cardinals have a much better slabman in War Sanders, the diminutive southpaw, than was generally believed. Sanders went the full nine innings and shut the "Colis" out without a run, giving them a few scattered hits.

Taylor and Dunleavy worked for the "Vets" and both did well. Neither team exerted itself much, the chilling wind taking the ambilition out of most of the players.

Starmacle, who caught for the Colts, showed himself to be a good receiver and a remarkably keen thrower. Zearfoss caught for the Regulars, and did nicely.

The hit of the game, however, was McLean at short. The "human flag pole" covered his rosition like a runaway windmill. Everything that came his way the long boy handled, but he managed to lose enough bails by his wild throws to eat in the gate receipts. To get a bell past McLean at short the Regulars had to cloud it a mile up in the air. Ordinary flies he reached with one hand, while he used the other to warm his ears.

McLean locks to be promising with the taxt. Donahue, the Sait Lake recruit, covered second base for the Colts. He showed the proper amount of ginger, and, although he did not get in the hit column, he stood up nicely and met the benders of Sanders with full swing. Domahue showed yesterday that he will make a valuable man for the Cardinaris.
